

Magnet Reflections.

Foxes are coming about the town, one being poisoned at Hill 60 G.M. and tracks of others being seen.

A euchre party and dance was held in the local hall last Saturday night. Miss Drew and Mr. Carroll won the prizes and Miss Webb and Miss Drew supplied the music. A pound note was raffled, Mr. M. G. Thomas being the lucky one. The proceeds (about £10) went to the R.C. Church funds.

Mr. Chesson, M.L.A., has been in town for the last week or so.

Rev. Father Prendergast journeyed to Geraldton last Monday.

Robert Milligan, prospector, aged 60 years, was found dead in his camp about half a mile from Paynesville Hotel on Sunday last. Alongside the body was a rifle and a large wound in the back of the head indicating that it was a case of suicide. The deceased evidently placed the rifle in his mouth and discharged it. The mouth was scorched. Owing to the railway station at Magnet being closed, Mr. G. O. Moses could not get into touch with the local constable. Sandstone police were then notified and P.C. Markey took charge of the case. The Coroner at Cue was notified early on Monday and ordered an inquest to be held on the body, appointing Mr. G. O. Moses, J.P., as acting-coroner.

Mr. Harrison, of Tuckanarra, had a narrow escape from serious injury when he jumped from the train last Friday night while the train was in motion. He sustained slight injury to his hip.

tained slight injury to his hip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Crick are back from their annual trip to the coast.
